INTRODUCTION

The promulgation of Employees' State Insurance (ESI) Act, 1948 envisaged an integrated need based social insurance scheme that would protect the interest of workers in contingencies such as sickness, maternity, temporary or permanent physical disablement and death due to employment injury resulting in loss of wages or earning capacity. The Act also guarantees reasonably good medical care to workers and their immediate dependents.

Following the promulgation of the ESI Act, the Central Government. set up the Employees State Insurance Corporation (ESIC) to administer the Scheme. Under the Act, ESIC provides comprehensive health care to all Insured persons and their families as one of the insurance related benefit. To administer this comprehensive medical care there is huge infrastructure comprising of 159 hospitals including arrangements with other Institutions for provision of super specialty care. There was a felt need to upgrade the medical facilities in ESI medical institutions all over the country so as to improve the service, provide best medical care and to have in house super specialty services. With this objective of improving the quality of care provision, need was felt to constantly improve the medical competencies of its human resource. As a first step in realization of this vision, ESIC decided to set up ESI Post Graduate Institutes for Medical Sciences & Research (ESI-PGIMSR) at their hospitals at K.K.Nagar (Chennai)-Tamilnadu, Coimbatore (Chennai)-Tamil Nadu, Faridabad-Haryana, Gulburga-Karnataka, Bangalore-Karnataka, Kollam-Kerala, Sanath Nagar- Hyderabad, Joka-Kolkata, Andheri(E)-Mumbai, MGM-Parel- Mumbai, Basaidarapur- Delhi. This initiative marks the beginning of its venture into the field of medical education with the setting up of Medical Colleges, Dental colleges and Nursing colleges all over India, to follow.

SECTION - II

VISION, MISSION & OBJECTIVES

- To ensure the availability of qualified medical personnel for the scheme by training healthcare professionals through its own medical education institutions.
- To enhance the skills and capabilities of the current healthcare workforce to deliver comprehensive medical services effectively.
- To elevate the standard of healthcare provided, aiming to boost patient satisfaction through improved quality of care.
- To achieve independence in postgraduate medical education by consolidating top-tier educational initiatives across key health sectors.
- To foster a spirit of inquiry and nurture scientific thinking among faculty and students through research-driven activities.
- To strengthen the social aspect of healthcare by offering advanced specialty treatments to insured individuals within the organization's own facilities.
- To remain attentive and adaptable to evolving educational, societal, and community needs.

ESIC Medical College & Hospital, KK Nagar, Chennai

ESI Hospital, KK Nagar, Chennai, established under the State Government was inaugurated in 1971. After taking over the Hospital by ESIC in 1991, continuous endeavors were made to up-grade and modernize the facilities. As a result of these concerted efforts, ESIC Hospital, KK Nagar has now become a 1000 bedded Hospital having state-of-the-art medical infrastructure, modern high tech equipments along with highly trained medical manpower. The Hospital is centrally situated in Chennai, at KK Nagar with easy accessibility and connectivity for its patients. It is an ISO: 9001-2008 certified institution providing high quality comprehensive health care services to the insured persons. To further augment the quality of care for its insured persons, an ESI Post Graduate Institute of Medical Sciences and Research (PGIMSR) has been established from the academic year 2011-12 with the aim to provide post- graduate teaching and training in various disciplines. The institute has been converted into a Medical College and is also conducting MBBS course from the Academic Year 2013-14.
